

The Emergency Preparedness Committee serves to communicate and support the town's response to emergencies:

The Emergency Preparedness Committee priorities include:

- To promote the concept of emergency preparedness with local businesses, residents and the community at large.
- To assess and make better Scottsville's preparedness state.
- To make recommendations to council on future preparedness needs.

Meetings are held every two weeks on Thursday at 3:00 pm in the Council Chambers, Victory Hall, 401 Valley Street. See the Town Meetings and Events Calendar.

If you are interested in serving on the Emergency Preparedness Committee or if you would like to request that an issue, be placed on the agenda of a meeting, please call the Town Office at 434.286.9267 or email raudalesscottsville@gmail.com

View PDF

Victory Hall
401 Valley St.
Scottsville, VA 24590
United States

View in Google Maps